

CANDIDATE FOR TRUSTEE

Calvin Farrell

Republic Airways Captain based in Boston. Retired Army aviator with 21 years of service and five deployments. Chairman of the Military Affairs Committee.

Born and raised in Traverse City, Michigan, Cal Farrell enlisted in the United States Army shortly after September 11, 2001. After several years of service, he was selected for Army flight school in 2009, beginning a career as an Army aviator that would take him around the world.

Over the course of 21 years of military service, Cal completed five deployments and served in a variety of leadership and operational roles before retiring from the Army. His military career instilled in him a deep commitment to service, leadership, and the men and women who continue to serve their country.

In 2022, he joined Republic Airways, where he currently serves as a Boston-based Captain. He and his wife live in New Hampshire with their five children.

Outside of aviation and military service, Cal is an avid outdoorsman. He enjoys hunting, fishing, gardening, and skiing, and spends much of his free time with his family enjoying the outdoors and the vast landscapes of the United States.

Continuing his commitment to military service and the veteran community, Cal currently serves as Chairman of the Military Affairs Committee, where he works to support military members in need of counsel.
